Direct Evaluation Support for Nonprofit Organizations

Healthcare Georgia Foundation recruits evaluation consultants and groups, known as ERC Partners, throughout Georgia to work with grantees and other health nonprofit organizations. ERC Partners submit statements of capabilities to the Foundation demonstrating capacity to work with health nonprofits in Georgia. The Foundation may commission directly, or request proposals from ERC Partners to evaluate programs, organizations, or initiatives funded by the Foundation. The ERC also offers to health nonprofits or grantees the ability to procure an ERC Partner if the organization lacks evaluation capacity and is seeking an evaluator.

Several examples of the types of evaluation support most typically requested by nonprofit health organizations:

- ❖ Determining your organization's "theory of change"
- ❖ Developing metrics and language for a grant proposal
- ❖ Developing indicators for hard to measure outcomes
- ❖ Developing metrics for your organization's strategic plan
- ❖ Assistance with data collection and analysis
- ❖ Consulting on communicating findings to funders, clients, and other stakeholders
- ❖ Consulting on using evaluation findings to improve your programs or strategies
- ❖ Providing evaluation trainings or workshops for your staff
